

Tuesday's Touch ...#31

...from Pastor Ed ...August 25, 2009

Christ, My All

...you are in Christ Jesus, who of God is made our wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption: 1 Corinth 1:30

I do not set aside the grace of God; for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died in vain. Galatians 2:21

Awakened by grace
And washed in the blood,
I rose up to follow
My Savior in love.

With purpose and zeal
I entered the race;
I started to run-
Fell flat on my face.

~

Bewildered and hurt
I ran to the Law
Asking the question,
Why did I fall?

Because you're a failure
The Law billowed back;
Repent and do right
Or stay on your back...

No difference to me
Should you rise or you fall;
In the end I'll condemn you-
I am the Law!

The words of my Savior
Seemed mocking to me-
My yoke is easy,
The truth sets you free?

'Tis burden on burden-
This trying to do right-
It's always more heavy,
It's never more light.

Forsaking the knot
At the end of my rope,
I had to let go,
As Law killed my hope.

~

Yet, I did not perish
On Law's rock below;
Startled by Love,
I found rest and repose.

Now you must see,
A Voice answered sweet,
That I am sufficient-
I'm all that you need.

Law cannot touch you,
Though threatening he be,
You've already died-
And he can't threaten Me.

Yes, Holy is God,
And holy you must;
But holy you are,
As in Me you trust.

Get back in the race,
You never can lose,
I'll bear you along
And put grace in your shoes.

So, now when temptation
Near' crushes my soul,
I flee to the Beautiful
One and behold

That One who is made
All glorious for me,
My Righteousness, Holiness,
Wisdom and Peace.

CHRIST is my Covenant,
Law, and my stand,
My Advocate sure,
In Immanuel's Land.

~

Eternal Sufficiency,

Suffice!

Amen
